4.5 In the present Agreement, except contrary provision, the words in the singular form will include the plural form and vice versa, where this is allowed by the context; Where a word or phrase is defined in the present, each of its other forms of grace will have a corresponding meaning.

4.6 The words "Company", "Customer", "Party" shall be interpreted to include any or all natural or legal persons - Contracting Parties.

4.7 Whenever the words "include" and "including" are used in this agreement, they must be followed by "without being limited to".

4.8 This Agreement shall include any Preamble and attachments hereto, and the references to provisions and appendices are references to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and attached attachments (eg Privacy Policy) to this Agreement form an integral part of this Agreement.

4.9 The term "day" or "days" or any reference to days are calendar days, unless otherwise specified.

4.10 In the event of a conflict between the version of present GTC in Romanian and in English, the Romanian GTC content shall prevail.

5. Object of GTC – SPARK Services:

5.1 The object of this GTC is the provision by the Company of the temporary rental of autovehicles on which the Company has the ownership and / or legal possession, as well as of other services, presented on the Company's website and in the Application mobile, in favor of the Customer, registered with the Company evidence, by creating the Client account and using the related Application. The Customer will use and pay the rental of the rented car in the terms and conditions presented on the Company's website, Mobile Application and GTC.

5.2 Upon termination of this Agreement, the Customer confirms the login data of the client account and the mobile application. The customer will protect the login (including password) from the client account and the mobile application and will immediately inform the Company in the event of their loss, the Customer being the sole responsible for their protection, recovery and security.

5.3 The procedures for managing the option , vehicle reservation, vehicle use procedure, vehicle inspection conditions, conditions for vehicle defects and incompatibilities and other conditions related to car rental and service are provided in the Rental and Performance Regulations of the services of this agreement and are published in the mobile application and on the website. The Company has the right to unilaterally modify the Rental and Service Regulations by notifying the Customer of a new Regulation, via e-mail. Continued use of the vehicle will be considered acceptance of the Regulation as updated.

5.4 After the enclosing of this agreement and accepting the GTC , the Customer will be able to use the Company's services, as per the Regulation, through the mobile application or customer account.

5.5 This Agreement will be considered an irrevocable agreement between the Company and the Customer as long as the Customer is registered with the Company through the Customer Account. The parties take note of and accept that Customer's instructions made through the use of the mobile application or client account have the same binding legal effect as the signature on the written documents and constitute valid court evidence or any other legal proceedings.

6. Terms of Use of the Vehicle:

6.1 Throughout the period of rental, the Customer will use the vehicle as a prudent and diligent owner and will use it for lawful purposes only on the territory of Romania under the terms and conditions of the GTC, without contradicting the requirements of the Regulation.

6.2 The customer must comply with the vehicle's operating requirements, the manufacturer's instructions and recommendations on the vehicle, the rules for road traffic laid down by normative acts and the requirements of other applicable legislation, to which they must be informed in advance. The operating requirements of the vehicle, although not mentioned in the GTC, are common to the use of the vehicle.

6.3 Each vehicle has a vehicle ignition key, a vehicle registration certificate, RCA insurance and is equipped according to the specifications of each type / mark of the car, including a type 2 power cord; if the Customer intends to electrically charge the Vehicle at a domestic outlet, the Company will provide him with the schuko type power cord, its delivery being made only at the Company's headquarters, based on a Delivery-Receipt Report.

6.4 Before the vehicle is taken over, the Customer must inspect it, check for visible external or internal irregularities, and verify the existence of the items listed in Art. 4.6. If Customer reports irregularities, he will immediately inform the Company and will not use the vehicle before receiving a response from the Company. Otherwise, it will be considered that all irregularities occurred during the period in which the Customer uses the vehicle, and the Customer is responsible for any unsigned and unspecified irregularity.

6.5 After using the vehicle, the Customer will return it to the Company at the location indicated in the Regulations and in the take-over status, except for the normal wear and tear associated with the period of use.

6.6 In the event that the vehicle is lost, destroyed, damaged or decomposed, and if circumstances arise which impede the possession and use of the vehicle, the Customer is obliged to immediately inform the Company and the competent authorities, so as to be without limit to: police organs, fire brigade, ambulance, etc..

6.7 Without the prior written consent of the Company, the Customer is not entitled to rent the vehicle, transfer its rights and obligations under the agreement or transfer the vehicle and authorize / create conditions for another person to use the vehicle. The customer is not entitled to use, directly or indirectly, interchangeably, in any form, the Commercial Vehicle (as is but without limitation: ride-sharing, taxi, goods transport, people, advertising, etc.).

7.12 By accepting the GTC, the Customer declares that he is informed of the right to provide travel services through the authorized Motor Vehicles of the Company and only with his prior written consent. The customer knows that by using the Company's vehicle to provide travel services, the unconditional deductible insurance (franchise) is EUR 500 (five hundred euros).

7.13 By accepting the GTC, the Customer confirms that he is fully familiar with the principle of operating the car system with the data collected and transmitted by him as well as with the types of such data and does not object that such data be collected and used for the purpose of fulfilling this agreement; The Customer agrees with the data provided by the Vehicle System and that these data will be used and considered credible when calculating the rental charge. The Client also agrees that such data may be used as valid evidence in court proceedings or other legal proceedings.

8. Validity of the GTC:

8.1 This Agreement enters into force at the time of explicit and implicit acceptance of Customer Account registration and will remain in force for an indefinite period of time.

8.2 Either party has the right to unilaterally terminate this agreement without addressing the court through a written notice to the other party at least thirty (30) days before the date of termination under the condition that the communication notification from the request ceases the contract has executed all and any contractual obligations.

8.3 Upon notice of termination of this Agreement, the Company has the right to immediately suspend its execution, cancel the Customer's reservations and block access to the mobile application or customer account if the Customer does not comply with the terms of the agreement and / or the Regulation.

8.4 The Company has the right to terminate this Agreement without recourse to the court by written notice sent to the Customer at least 5 (five) days prior to the date of termination, if the Customer violates the essential provisions of this Agreement. Essential provisions are considered: late payment of any amount due for more than 10 (ten) calendar days ; repeated failure to perform or inappropriately perform any of the obligations of this Agreement; if the Customer uses the vehicle without complying with the Regulation or intends to perform unfair actions that cause injury or damage the performance of the vehicle, its system and / or the mobile application.

8.5 Termination of the Agreement shall not affect the validity of the provisions of the Dispute Settlement Understanding and other provisions, provided that these provisions, in their essence, remain valid after the conclusion of the Agreement.

9. The payment:

9.1 The Customer pays the Company for the use of the vehicle (hereinafter - Rental fee) in accordance with the actual prices at the time of booking, which are presented on the website www.espark.ro and in the mobile application SPARK. The invoice for the use of the vehicle is issued to the person who has been designated and registered by the Customer in the relationship with the Company and cannot be modified. The rental price of each

9.2 The Client pays to the Company a fee for verifying the conformity of the data and documents sent in the mobile application, in a fixed amount, respectively 50 (fifty) lei, which will automatically turn into a voucher (a cost reduction with a determined value), having the value registered in the mobile application, which the Company grants to the Client only once for the races performed by the Client with Spark vehicles. The verification of data and documents is performed by the Company respecting the confidentiality of the Client's data and GDPR, with the help of the Company's employees and the Company's partner service providers (payment provider), so that the fee charged is used by the Company to pay for services. verification. The Client accepts that he cannot oblige the Company in any way to return the verification fee, regardless of the reason.

9.3 The period of use of the vehicle begins when the vehicle is unlocked by selecting the "Unlock" command using the mobile application or customer account and ends when returning the vehicle to the location specified in the Regulation and selecting the "Lock" command using the mobile application or customer account.

9.4 Payment for the car rental service and other services, if any, will be made immediately after the use of the Service, by ordering payment by the Company, based on GPS data on the use of the Service (distance, km traveled, period of use), having the payment card data registered in the application or the customer account, through the electronic payment provider. By booking the vehicle, the Client confirms the electronic payment method and that there are sufficient funds in the account related to the card details, registered in the application or the client's account. At the same time, by entering the bank details by the Client, he assumes the payment method, as well as any responsibility regarding the following situations but not limited to: non-payment of the service due to non-existence of funds or other situations, legal possession of bank details provided, etc. The company does not assume any responsibility for any disputes between the user of banking data (Customer) and the rightful owner of banking data and reserves the right to ask the Customer to pay compensation in case of receiving any categories of complaints (notification, complaint, notification, court action etc.) by the rightful owner of the bank details.

9.5 The customer agrees that the payment instrument (payment card) registered in the mobile application or the customer account must allow automatic withdrawals from the account connected to the card. The amounts for the services provided will be automatically debited from the card registered by the Customer, starting with the moment of the end of the Car rental session, but not later than 24 hours from this moment. In case of failure of automatic withdrawals from the linked card account, within a maximum of 24 hours, due to insufficient funds in the bank account, the Company will inform the Client. If after this time, the Company still cannot withdraw the amount related to the rental of the Vehicle by the Customer, the Company reserves the right to apply a delay penalty of 0.1%, as well as to apply an administrative fee. of 5 (five) euros. If in maximum 3 (three) days from the date of use of the Service, the Client does not pay its value, the Company reserves the right to initiate the necessary legal actions to recover the amount due and the related penalties; the amount of the penalties may exceed the amount of the principal debit.

9.6 The payment amounts for the Customer are calculated by the Company in accordance with the data registered in the mobile application, as well as with the data from the vehicle's GPS system, the Company communicating to the Customer by e-mail the invoice containing the payment amounts for renting and using services. . Upon receipt of the invoice, the Customer is obliged to verify the correctness of the data, including the amounts entered in its content, and in case of errors, to inform the Company within 48 (forty-eight) hours of communication of the invoice, otherwise, The parties will consider the invoice issued by the Company as valid and correct.

9.7 The customer knows and agrees that unlocking or locking the vehicle (each action separately) may take up to 1 (one) minute due to network operators, and this duration is included in the rental period of the vehicle, not subject to an additional charge of hire.

9.8 If the Customer does not pay any amount due for the services used, fails to return the vehicle to the indicated location or in case of other violations of the agreement or Regulation, the Company has the right to block the Client's access to the mobile application or customer account and / or or block the use of the vehicle (blocking the ignition / access of the vehicle) until all breaches of the Customer are remedied.

9.9 The Company authorizes, and the Customer accepts that immediately after an interval of 24 (twenty-four) hours, during which the Customer has used the Service continuously, respectively the Customer has not closed the session of using the vehicle, according to the indications of the mobile application , the online billing system will automatically generate the invoice for the service used and will request immediate payment for the use of the service.

9.10 If in the conditions mentioned in art. 8.9 The Customer continues to use the service without immediately making successful payment for the use of the service continuously for an interval of 24 (twenty-four) hours, the Company is entitled to consider the use of the service by the Customer in an unauthorized manner. By the unauthorized use of the vehicle by the Customer, he implicitly agrees to bear the legal consequences of unauthorized use and the legal measures required, as they are but not limited to: payment of penalties for late payment of service used, blocking access to the service used by the Client, the recovery of the vehicle, the notification of the competent bodies regarding the crime of theft or other crimes that characterize the illicit deed of the Client, etc ..

9.11 If the Customer deletes the account or any identification data, as they are but not limited to: name, contact details, identification documents, bank details (bank account), without informing the Company in advance, the latter does not assume any responsibility for any consequences that may result directly or indirectly from these actions of the Customer. Also, if the Customer deletes the account or any identification data / documents, as mentioned above, if it records outstanding amounts in the Company's records, the latter reserves the right to apply a penalty. equal to the value of the amount due, as well as to take all the legal measures required to bring to the civil and / or criminal liability of the Client, for the recovery of the damage caused to the Company by this deed.

9.12 The company may modify the price list unilaterally and will notify the Customer about its update directly in the mobile application and on the website.

9.13 If the Company has the obligation to return any amount to the Customer, unless the parties agree otherwise, these amounts will be returned to the bank account, with the details of the payment card registered in the mobile application or customer account, from which the payment was made by the Customer.

9.14 If the Customer becomes eligible, according to the conditions of loyalty campaigns, for the application of discounts, they will be deducted proportionally from the amounts due for renting the vehicle and using the services, within the terms and conditions provided by each such campaign.

9.15 The company executes the eGO loyalty program, through which the Customer is awarded one (1) eGO point for every 1 leu paid for renting a Spark car. The customer can examine the amount of eGO points collected in the mobile application. The customer has the right to exchange eGO points collected in prizes, more information being published in the mobile application and on the site. The collected eGO points are valid for 24 months. If the Customer does not use the collected points within the set time limit, they will be canceled. The company reserves the right to change the terms of the loyalty program without notifying the Customer in advance. The company has the right to terminate the program for any reason, by prior notice to the customer.

9.16 For non-compliance with these GTC, including the Terms of Use, when using the Company's application and / or service, the Customer agrees to pay in full and immediately an appropriate penalty, the amount of which is set out in Annex 1 to the GTC.

10. Rights and Obligations of the Parties:

10.1 For the Company:

1. Provides the services requested by the Client under the agreed terms and conditions, in compliance with the legal norms in force;
2. Ensures the human, material, technical and other resources necessary to present the services, as well as make them available to the Client;
3. Has the right to full and timely payment of services provided under this Agreement;
4. A re right to use any and all of the data and information that becomes aware during the execution of the contract period in order to achieve the objectives of this contract;
5. The company assumes obligations regarding the way and the delivery time of the rented vehicle at the indicated location;
6. The Company's obligations and responsibilities to the Client are exclusively those defined in this Agreement; for this reason, in case of breach or non-fulfillment of the contractual obligations imputable to the Company , it is not responsible for a higher amount than the amount paid by the Client for renting the vehicle or using the services.

10.2 For the Client:

1. Ensure the payment of the value of the contract in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement;
2. Forward to the Company all correct and complete information regarding personal data, vehicle usage information, in situations that generated losses;
